ing group of honest, hard working team members. We all enjoy working together toward the common goal of quality customer service and generating exceptional results."

Strengths: Marak is known for highly visible creative marketing campaigns. "I am grateful to have a wonderful father who is creative, intelligent and a truly talented individual," she adds. "I want to thank him for giving me what I have that allows me to achieve such a level of success."

Achievements: Marak has received some of the highest awards given to real estate professionals including the Houston Business Journal Top 25, which she receives this year for the eighth consecutive year. Others include Hall of Fame, Lifetime Achievement, Broker and Realtor of the Year along with many top production awards. Marak continues to achieve in both education and experience as she recently obtained her Texas Mortgage Broker's license and opened a Mortgage Company to add to her list of accomplishments.

Personal: Although Marak spends much time focused on her business, she enjoys both the coastal and hill country lifestyles with her husband, her father and family friends.
